

MICHAEL GARMASH

Michael Garmash is an internationally recognized painter known for his expressive, romantic figurative works and masterful use of light and color. Born in Lugansk, Ukraine, he studied at the Lugansk Art College and later at the prestigious Repin Institute in St. Petersburg.

Working primarily in oil, Garmash creates emotionally rich compositions that capture fleeting moments of beauty, intimacy, and elegance. His subjects are brought to life through loose, confident brushwork and a refined sensitivity to light and atmosphere.

His work reflects a deep appreciation for classical traditions while maintaining a contemporary impressionistic style, and is held in collections worldwide.
