

LYDIA GATZOW

Lydia Gatzow is a contemporary impressionistic landscape oil painter based in Sedona, Arizona. Originally from Whitefish Bay, Wisconsin, she earned her BFA in Painting from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, New York.

Gatzow paints primarily outdoors on location, using light, atmosphere, and intuition to guide her work. Her paintings reflect a deep connection to nature and an exploration of its spiritual presence.

Her work has been exhibited in juried shows across the United States and is influenced by artists such as Georgia O'Keeffe, Claude Monet, and the California Impressionists.
