

MAGGIE BASSETT

Maggie Bassett is a charcoal artist rooted in the wild spirit of Wyoming. Her work celebrates strength, freedom, and the enduring heritage of the American West.

Bassett draws inspiration from the rugged landscapes and cultural richness of the West, exploring themes of resilience, tradition, and the deep connection between nature and spirit. Her evocative charcoal pieces serve as tributes to the wilderness and a way of life found nowhere else.

Through her work, Bassett aims to inspire others to embrace their wild nature, honor their roots, and reflect on the beauty and freedom of the Western spirit.
